

For Immediate Release

Tim Gerwing releases his 9th studio album November 2017.

Like audio bokeh, thick and lush electroacoustic soundscapes envelope the mysterious sounds of Central Asian santur (dulcimer).

This is a collection of music celebrating the beauty of sunlight on many levels: physical, psychological, mythological, emotional, spiritual. The 10 tracks are calm, expansive, even meditative - "Slow" as vernacularization of what in Classical music terms might have been called "adagio" or "lento". But also "Slow" in the sense of the invitation to listen into the music: Music for the Inner Listener.
